There is a .25 per page charge for normal copying. You may be charged actual cost of reproduction in some cases.

Pursuant to the Freedom of Information law, adopted January 1, 1978, you have a right of access to governmental records of the Town of Lewisboro.

A record is defined by the law as any information kept, held, filed, produced, or reproduced by, with or for an agency or the State Legislature, in any physical form whatsoever.

According to law, all records are accessible except records or portions of records that fall within one of the following categories:

- < (A) Any record specifically exempted from disclosure by state or federal statute.
- < (B) Any record that would, if disclosed, result in an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy.
- < (C) Any record which would if disclosed impair present or imminent contract awards or collective bargaining negotiations.
- < (D) Any record which is a trade secret or is submitted to an agency which would if disclosed cause substantial injury to the competitive position of the subject enterprise.
- < (E) Records which are compiled for law enforcement purposes and would interfere with law enforcement investigations, deprive a person of a right to a fair trial or impartial adjudication, identify a confidential source or confidential information, reveal criminal investigative techniques, or would endanger the life or safety of any person.
- < (F) Records which are inter-agency or intra-agency communications except for:
 - (I) Statistical or factual tabulations or data
 - (II) Instructions to staff that affect the public
 - (III) Final agency policy or determinations
 - (IV) External audits
- < (G) Records which are examination questions or answers
- < (H) Records which are Computer Access Codes
